Few roads, if any, in this section have done the extensive advertising that has been done by the "Henderson Route," and from all reports, they are reaping the benefit that is sure to follow judicious advertising. Mr. L. J. Irwin, the general passenger agent, has done a great deal to make his road popular, and the enforced additional equipment and new heavy rail attest the success with which he is meeting.

A history of American journalism, compiled by R. M. McKenzie under the direction of Librarian Putnam of the Congressional Library, will soon be issued by the Government. The newspapers treated are arranged by states, and include those long since dead as well as the newest of the living. ## Farm For Sale.

Farm of 60 acres two miles from Spoutspring and six miles from Clay City, nearest railroad point. This farm is on excellent fruit farm and has on it now about 100 bearing fruit trees and 50 young apple trees. There also are some grape vines on the place. All kinds of fruit do exceedingly well on this place. I want to sell this farm with the growing crop of corn of 14 acres, 35 stands of bees, and the abundant Staple and Fancy peach crop. This place is specially adapted to bees, there being an abundance of poplar, lyn and other honey-producing trees. This farm is a bargain for one with small capital. For particulars call on or address A. H. McINTOSH, Spoutspring, Ky.

Public Sale!

At my residence at Spoutspring Saturday, August 24, 1901, I will offer at public sale the following personal property: Eight cows, six of them have calves; 10 stock hogs, two saws and pigs; Eight yearling steers and two heifers; various farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Terms made known on day of Benj. McKinney.

Mrs. Gertrude Saunders, the postmistress of Newcatle, Ky., whose office furnished the sole support for her ten children, has been removed on the relterated demand of Senator Deboe, and the entire ilenry County Republican Committee, who wanted the post for one of their number, J. Mrs. Saunders has discharged her duties with entire satisfaction for about nine years. She is the widow of a Republican. The Henry County Committee is composed of eleven postmasters and four others, the eleven having obtained thier offices by recommending each other. Yet, in the face of such things as this, Kentucky wonders that she is falling behind in the opinion of th country, and Kentucky Republicans wonder why they do not receive more sympathy from their party brethren in their political
